Swarland is an idyllic village which boasts its own Primary School, 'Nelsons' coffee shop, children's play area, tennis courts, a village golf course and club house, equestrian facilities, a village hall and stunning views of the coast and countryside with walks into the countryside minutes from your front door. A two-minute drive from the A1, this village is perfectly located for easy access north into Scotland and south to Newcastle and beyond.

A flagged path, between a good-sized lawn, leads to the front door which opens into a welcoming hallway complete with parquet style LVT flooring which is stunning. Doors lead off to the principal living spaces either side of the central staircase which ascends to the first floor.

Bathed in natural light courtesy of a bay window to the front and a window to the rear capturing views of the garden, the lounge is an inviting room in which to spend time with family and friends. This neutrally decorated room allows the easy addition of accent colour should you so wish. A centrally placed chimney breast incorporates a modern fire which forms an attractive focal point and entices you to sit before it during the cooler months; there are alcoves to either side.

There is a four-ring electric hob beneath a large extractor fan, an eye level Belling double oven, a bowl and a half stainless steel sink, space for three under bench appliances and plumbing and space for a washing machine. A large window provides views of the rear garden in addition to allowing a wealth of natural light to enter. The kitchen benefits from a storage cupboard which could be utilised as a pantry. A second door provides access to a room which houses the oil boiler and which offers further storage. This could be ideally utilised as a utility room and benefits from a door which provides external access to the rear garden.

Taking the stairs to the first floor, the landing opens out to two bedrooms, the bathroom and a useful storage cupboard. An elevated window at the top of the stairs illuminates the landing space perfectly.
