There is still a working harbour, a marina and a popular Sunday market. Many of the things to do in Amble are based on the very thing that almost completely surrounds it - water. Watersports, sailing, canoeing, kayaking and fishing are all extremely popular. Amble is home to the UK's only puffin festival, inspired by the colourful 36,000-bird colony nesting on Coquet Island, an RSPB seabird sanctuary a mile off the coast. Warkworth and Alnwick are a short drive away. Amble has a regular bus service to Alnwick, Ashington, Blyth and Newcastle, and it is approximately 4.5 miles to the mainline rail station at Alnmouth.

The front door opens into a useful porch which houses the electrical consumer unit for ease of access, and which offers space to hang coats and store shoes. The space is finished with stylish dark grey wood-look laminate flooring which extends into the lounge creating a seamless transition between the different spaces.

With a window overlooking the front of the property, the lounge is an inviting room in which to spend time with family and friends. There is plenty of space for a range of comfortable furniture and there is beneficial access to the storage cupboard beneath the stairs.

A door leads to an internal hallway which provides convenient access to the ground floor WC. The suite comprises a close coupled toilet with a push button behind and a full pedestal hand wash basin.

The kitchen is a light and bright space overlooking the rear of the property. There are a good number of wall and base units with a wood-look door complemented by a contrasting stone-effect laminate work surface with a matching upstand. In terms of fitted equipment, there is an oven and a four-ring gas hob beneath a stainless-steel splash back and built in chimney style extractor fan, a fridge-freezer, a washing machine and a single bowl stainless steel sink. There is plenty of space to sit and dine before a pair of French doors which open out into the rear garden. The space is finished with a tile-effect vinyl flooring creating a stylish look.

Taking the stairs to the first floor the landing opens out to two bedrooms and the family bathroom.

Bedroom 1 is a good-sized double with plenty of storage options available. Two windows allow a wealth of natural light to circulate.

Bedroom 2 is a double room taking advantage of views to the rear of the property. This light and airy room also offers a range of storage options.

The family bathroom is spacious and comprises a close coupled toilet with a push button behind, a full pedestal hand wash basin, an extractor fan, an electric shower over the bath and a chrome heated towel rail ensures added comfort. The space is attractively tiled creating a crisp and fresh finish.

The stairs continue to the third floor where there landing opens out to a storage cupboard before the space leads to the primary bedroom. With two Velux windows within the shaped ceiling, this spacious double room is slightly further removed from the main hub of the home making it a superbly peaceful and tranquil space. Loft access is available.

The rear garden offers a pleasant space in which you can relax and unwind at the end of the day. A paved area adjacent to the property offers an ideal space for al fresco dining and a path leading to a second paved space provides an alternative place to sit and enjoy the sunshine. The remaining space is laid to lawn and there is gated access to the rear.
